OLD PAPERS.

Good conditioned old papers for sale at this office at only 40 cents per hundred.

CITY IN BRIEF.

Jacob Smith, a brother of Henry Smith, died yesterday.

Telephone No. 1,016 is located in the Signal Service office.

The Lyra annual masquerade will occur the evening of the 12th of next month.

At 11:30 last night an order was received to lower the cold wave signal at daylight.

Sentinel Voorhees will leave for Terre Haute at noon to-day, and will leave for Washington Saturday.

The Tabernacle Church high tea, to have been given at the residence of N. S. Byram, to-morrow evening, is postponed.

Rev. Mr. Moody, the renowned evangelist, will be in the city Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, February 23, 24 and 25.

Mr. Leyman Beeman, an old resident of Lafayette, Ind., and father of Mrs. S. A. Huff, of this city, died this morning at 5 o'clock, in the eighty-third year of his age.

George Roberts, arrested some time ago on a charge of passing counterfeit money, was brought before Commissioner Martindale yesterday afternoon and given a partial hearing. The case was then postponed until this afternoon.

STATE ASSOCIATIONS.

Annual Meetings of the Swine and Short Horn Breeders—Officers Elected by Both Associations.

The annual meeting of the Indiana Swine Breeders Association was held yesterday afternoon in the rooms of the State Board of Agriculture. The President of the Association, Richard Jones, was absent, and L. D. Thomas, of Rush County, was called to the Chair. W. E. Jackson, of Knightstown, was elected Secretary pro tem. A committee of two was appointed to invite Governor Gray to address the association, after which the premium list reported at the meeting of the Fair managers in St. Louis was adopted. A paper was then read by T. M. Revel on "The Relation of a Fat Stock Show to Swine Breeding." Following the discussion of this paper L. N. Barker read an address on "Hog Feeding for Profit and Health." The feeding of pumpkins to hogs was then thoroughly debated, it being conceded by all that they were good feeding for swine at all times, and especially in the winter. A Committee of Three on Programs was then appointed and the meeting adjourned until evening.

The night meeting was called to order promptly at 7:30, and the above mentioned committee presented an excellent program for next year's convention, which was adopted. A paper was read by H. McCord on "The Character of the Chester White," after the discussion of which the following new members were enrolled: J. H. Long, S. W. Cook, I. F. Henshaw, T. S. Revel, Elvin Barker and J. S. Kercheval. The next thing in order was the election of officers and the balloting began, resulting as follows:

President—D. L. Thomas, Rushville.
Vice President—L. N. Barker, Thornstown.
Secretary—W. E. Jackson, Knightstown.
Treasurer—A. S. Gilmore, Greensburg.
Executive Committee—J. M. Dye, W. C. Williams and H. McCord.

Before adjourning, the meeting discussed a motion that the State Board of Agriculture be requested to appoint one man, instead of three, to award premiums. The majority of the members were decidedly in favor of the motion, and the impression prevailed that it should be referred to a committee, with instruction to report after they had examined into the matter thoroughly.

THE SHORT-HORN BREEDERS.

The Short-Horn Breeders met again yesterday morning, and elected the following officers:

President—Robert Mitchell, Princeton.
Vice President—S. L. Lockridge, Greencastle.
Secretary—W. E. Quick, Columbus.
Treasurer—E. S. Frazel, Orange.

Resolutions were then passed requesting the General Assembly to take steps to prevent the spread of that dread disease, pleuropneumonia. The meeting adjourned after preparing a program of exercises for the next annual convention.

THE WOOL GROWERS.

The semi-annual meeting of the Indiana Wool Growers' Association will be held this afternoon, commencing at 1:30 o'clock. Subjects of importance to the wool growers' interest will be fully discussed. The Marion County Agricultural and Horticultural Society will meet in the rooms of the State Board of Agriculture on Saturday afternoon.

THE RAILWAYS.

Rumors Concerning the Oregon and Transcontinental Company—Other Items of the Rail.

The scalper continues to drag out a weary existence in the Crescent City.

As the season advances the movement of live stock to Eastern points increases. Rates on this class of traffic are being well maintained.

The impression still prevails that Colonel William Dowd will be offered the Presidency of the Monon at the next annual meeting of that company.

The Indianapolis and St. Louis Road hauled into St. Louis during the year of 1884 4,149,800 tons of coal, and in 1883, 3,533,590; Vandalia, 9,282,875, and in 1883, 8,831,925.

No steps have as yet been taken to reorganize the Indianapolis East-bound pool on the net money basis. An effort will be made this spring, however, to have this done.

"Mr. Carson is undoubtedly the best Manager the Monon has ever had," said an Air Line engineer yesterday afternoon. He treats his subordinates like they should be treated, and they are best pleased when doing his bidding.

Passenger earnings for the last quarter of this month will be anything but heavy, nor will the freight department make a very favorable showing for the present week. People dislike to travel during intensely cold weather when trains are delayed six and seven hours and sometimes abandoned. Track walkers are doing service day and night on nearly all of the Indianapolis roads, and a close watch is kept for breaks in the tracks or weak places in bridges.

It is said in railroad circles that Mr. Huntington was recently given a month's option on the purchase of the Owensburg and Nashville Railroad, and the belief is strongly entertained that he will buy the road. This is understood to involve its completion from Adairville, its present terminus, to Nashville, in almost an air line, following a course between Springfield and Cross Plains directly to New Orleans. It is also stated that should the transfer be made it will not in any way interfere with the building of the Chesapeake and Nashville Road now in course of construction.

THE OREGON TRANSCONTINENTAL.

A special to the Louisville Courier-Journal says: Oregon Transcontinental usually gets the benefit of any rumors that are going round Wall Street, and to-day dispatches came flying over from Boston asking if there was any truth in the rumor that another large loan of the company fell due on the 1st of February, and that the company had as yet been unable to protect it. President Smith was well-nigh disgusted, and was free to say that he did not think he could devote proper attention to the affairs of the company if he took time to deny all the rumors that speculators choose to put in circulation. The report is due to a misunderstanding. The company has placed $7,500,000 of the new collateral trust loan issued under the circular of November 11, 1884, and has given an option on the remaining $2,500,000, which expires on the 1st of February. The old loan has been taken up with the proceeds of the loan, and even though the option to take the remaining $2,500,000 should not be exercised, the company has no claims pressing for immediate payment. The managers profess to have very little doubt of the result of the suit instituted to prevent the issue of Oregon and California second mortgage bonds so long as the interest is unpaid upon the $1,170,000 of the same issue which they hold in their treasury.

The Oregon Improvement Company shows an increase of earnings for December, being the first gain in any month for nearly a year, and arrangements are now pending for the funding of the floating debt and the payment to the Oregon Transcontinental of the company's notes, amounting to $518,000.

Reception to Hon. D. W. Voorhees.

The reception given by Hon. William H. English last evening at the English Hotel, in honor of Senator D. W. Voorhees, was one of the society events of the season. The specious reception rooms of the hotel were crowded with the invited guests, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. Mr. English received the guests, assisted by his daughter, Mrs. Willoughby Walling, and with Hon. Charles Jewett, Speaker of the House of Representatives, to perform the ceremony of introduction. The affair was a success in every way. Supper was served in the hotel dining rooms at the usual hour, upon the announcement of which Mr. English led the way, accompanied by Mrs. Senator McDonald, and followed by Senator Voorhees, accompanied by Miss Williams, of Bloomington, and Senator McDonald, accompanied by Mrs. Walling. The repast was enlivened with strains of sweetest music, furnished by the orchestra under the direction of Professor Louis Vogt. There were about 300 persons present during the evening, which includes the members of both branches of the Legislature, the State officers, the Judges of the Supreme Court, and members of the State and County Central Committees. In addition to these were noticed Hon. Richard Bright, Hon. Lycurgus Dalton, Postmaster of the National House of Representatives; P. H. McNeill, D. A. Lemon, Hon. T. B. Messick, Professor Gorby, Hon. Michael Sweeney of New Albany, prominent Attorney Burke, of Floyd County; Hon. John C. Shoemaker, Hon. R. W. Myers, of Bloomington; Hon. James Williams, of Monroe County; Colonel Thomas Shea, of Scott County; A. H. Barnes, J. H. Renham, Colonel Ed Bannister, of Lawrenceburg; Hon. C. E. Fairbanks, of Terre Haute; Christian Brink, Hon. Simon W. Coy, William Carter, Hon. E. Henderson, Hon. W. W. Spencer, Thomas Kearney, Judge Lewis C. Walker, of the Superior Court; Judge A. C. Ayres, of the Circuit Court; Hon. F. M. Dice, ex-Reporter of the Supreme Court; Dr. J. W. Stratford, Hon. J. P. Frenzel, Harry H. Francis, editor of the Michigan City Dispatch; Hon. John Wilson, Hon. M. G. McLain, Councilman J. T. Dowling, Charles M. Cooper, Hon. J. J. Bingham, Hon. O. B. Hord, Governor Harrison, Governor Gray and others, many of whom were accompanied by their wives and daughters. Following the supper a dance was had in which many participated. This was in the dining room, which was elaborately decorated with flags and bunting. At the close of the large picture of Senator Voorhees was hung, underneath which were the words "Our large-hearted and large-brained Senator."

The Rinks.

The Winkam Rink at each session yesterday had splendid houses, although there was no special feature of attraction. The usual programme was rendered, and each one present seemed to enjoy himself or herself with a zest that indicated they had attended solely for the purpose of skating. The orchestra, at this place is a good one, and their efforts to render fine music are met with a full appreciation by the large audiences present. To-morrow evening the third grand display of the carnival and play, and the indications are that it will surpass, if possible, any previous affair of the kind ever given in this city.

Those who attend the Meridian Rink to-night will be entertained by the following popular artists: Professor Charles H. Porter, champion high pedestal skater and club swinger of the United States and Canada; Porter and Buckley, champions of champions on the star bicycle; Professor Harry Hammon, champion by skater of the world and winner of $1,500; Miss Daisy Pelham, champion lady skater and winner of eighteen gold and silver medals; Porter and Buckley, champion Columbia bicycle riders, the only double team in the world riding on both style machines; Professor Charles H. Porter, champion skater of the United States and Canada. The exhibition will begin promptly at 9 o'clock, and is positively limited to one hour.

In the engagement of Charles E. Basson, Master of Ceremonies of the Winkam Rink, has secured the most "taking card" of the season. The "Boy Wonder" has been greeted with magnificent audiences at every appearance, and each exhibition seems only to further increase the favor he has created among the lovers of the graceful art of roller skating. His movements are all rendered with such precision and elegance that his admirers seem to become fairly wild in their endeavors to show just appreciation of his performance. He will appear again this evening and the remainder of the week. All should witness his wonderful feats on the "little wagons."

A Mercantile Polo League will be organized at Meridian Rink this afternoon, at 4 o'clock, to which all are invited. It is especially hoped that all the mercantile firms of the city, both wholesale and retail, will be represented. Polo clubs will be formed and named after the various firms of the city, and will contest for prizes, which will be awarded to first, second and third positions. The polo game will be played during the interval between the League games played by the Meridian Club.

The Insane Asylum Fire.

President Harrison, of the State Benevolent Board, says that the loss by the Insane Asylum fire will not exceed $25,000. This estimate, the doctor says, covers everything. The steam heating apparatus is again in working order, seven boilers being in use with connections adjusted. With the aid of the $5,000 appropriated by the Legislature the pressing wants of the institution can be supplied at once. Despite the cold weather a number of persons visited the ruins yesterday.
